

2022 SHOW OVERVIEW

The 32nd edition of the International Tourism and Travel Show returns after a two-year absence and for the very first time at the Palais des congrès de Montréal. The new exhibition site, chosen for its reputation, location and quality of its services, welcomed 28,275 visitors during the 3 day event.

With more than 250 destinations, over 100 exhibitors, conferences, dances and culinary presentations, visitors were able to find live inspiration, information and guidance for their next travel adventure.

The opening day of the show was dedicated to travel industry professionals. In collaboration with TravelWeek the industry day welcomed over a 1,000 travel professionals, who visited the show and attended various conferences and events.

In addition to the many experts on site, the Show presented several interesting attractions including

- Le Coin Causerie resented by YUL
- La Cuisine du monde presented by the École des métiers de la restauration de Montréal in collaboration with Adonis
- Cultural dances, music and more by the Société du patrimoine d'expression du Québec
- Virtual reality destination tours with iFeel Virtuel
- The Go Van co-working bus
